

Joan Jackson-Deal
Director of Human Resources
Ak-Chin Indian Community

Joan Jackson-Deal has served as the Human Resource Director for Ak-Chin Indian Community Government and Farms since 2009 where she is responsible for all Human Resource functions. In addition, she serves as the Chairman of the Ak-Chin Employee Benefit Trust and serves as a member of the Ak-Chin Safety Committee.

Joan is a certified Senior Human Resource Professional (SHRP) and SHRM Senior Certified Professional (SHRM-SCP). In addition, she completed her Tribal Human Resource Professional certification (THRP) in 2013. She has also completed the coursework required for the Certified Compensation Professional (CCP) designation.

Joan possesses a Bachelor's Degree in Human Resource Development, completed the ASU Leadership and Management Institute certificate program and Master's level coursework in the field of Business Administration.

Joan has career experience in the field of Human Resources that extends over 25 years. Joan has worked within the banking, retail and healthcare industries over the course of her career. Her expertise includes experience with high volume recruitment, instructional design, facilitation of training, project management and HR related software implementations.